A HUMAN PERSPECTIVE ON SERVICE ORGANISATIONS
Complex responsive processes

In the context of organisations

“Organisations are not actually existing things called systems but, rather, are ongoing, iterated patterns of relationships between people” (Stacey, 2006).

LESSON BOXES

SPEED SHARING

THEME: PRIDE IN PRACTICE
Solutions
Speed Sharing event for teachers

Scenarios
- Municipality or school organises a speed sharing event
- Teachers come together around a specific topic
- They have brief one-on-one meetings in which they share ideas

Goals
Improving the quality of teaching through sharing knowledge

Themes
Pride in practice
people with a mental illness & carers
Theme: DRIVE to make a difference

[ambulance paramedic]: “There’s no better feeling than saving someone’s life”
Theme: sustaining DRIVE

Storytelling

Reflection & strategy

Feedback to storytellers

Communication - internal

Communication - external
MAJOR HEADING

Cross-organisational Coaching Team

- An observer collects stories from people with lived experience of an acute mental health episode
- Team leaders collectively reflect on the stories
- They use their reflections to coach people on the ground through positive and constructive feedback

Collective motivation of people working in the service system
Improving the practice through reflective practice/learning
