Systemic design toolkit workshop on Tuesday

A toolkit for systemic change

Systemic Design toolkit

- created by Namahn in collaboration with shiftN, SDA, MaRS

A methodology and a library of tools

- First of its kind
- Based on academic research and human-centred design expertise

A toolkit for systemic change

Systems change should be done from within

- With and by the actors in the system
- Co-creation sessions with the stakeholders in the room

Tools to foster dialogue

- No need for the participants to master the vast underlying principles of systems thinking and human-centred design

The toolkit in the design process

Systems thinking
infused with
design thinking

Design thinking
infused with
systems thinking

Exploring the space of possibilities

Exploring the space of possibilities

What's Next?

Our plan and how you can participate

1. Foundations Toolkit Creative Commons Release

An open source tool for each stage of a systemic design project

2. Publish a Free Online Course

Providing the curious novice with a systemic design experience

The online course will familiarize students with the systemic design toolkit, guiding them through its application to a complex challenge.

3. Expand the Systemic Design Toolkit

Integrate proven tools from the systemic design community

Create a process for aggregating, publishing and supporting the systemic design tool set that rewards contributors and sustains development.

4. Customize Toolkits by Application

Different assemblages optimized for common use cases

Teachers &
Students

Corporates & Startups

Governments &
Civil Society

Systemic Designers

Ways to Get Involved:

- Become a co-creation partner (content creation)
- Become an academic partner (teach the toolkit)
- Become a commercial partner (deliver training)
- Submit a novel systemic design tool
- Test and provide feedback on existing tools

Panel discussion

How is this toolkit different from other design methods collections?

What are you looking for in partners who may want to help with the development and dissemination of the toolkit?

What is one open question you have about the future of the systemic design toolkit?

What has been your experience using the Toolkit in the classroom and studio?

What are you most excited about with the release of this toolkit?
